Jorge Rico,
CEO, ACG

(Blowtherm exclusive distributor: Eurotech of Southern California.)

Why did ACG choose Blowtherm? “Increased delivery and lead time. Blowtherm is highly rated and well known in the industry,” explains Jorge Rico, CEO. “We have a full downdraft Spray Booth with integrated lift used to paint vehicles. The lift feature allows for improved quality during the paint process. We are Maserati & Tesla certified. Our Blowtherm distributor, Rob Summers, has been key in the development process and extremely hands-on during the process to get our spray booths up and running as quickly as possible. We plan on partnering with Blowtherm USA for future expansions at our Los Angeles and Santa Ana locations.”

Why settle for anything less?
